Da Bulls Beat the #1 Supersonics

Written on March 22

The BULLS are 2.5 games behind. They beat the Seattle Supersonics. They also played Minnesota and beat them by ten points. The BULLS are going for the fourth NBA championship in a row. If they achieve this astonishing goal they will be the first team to do this.

Harding Asked to Become Professional Wrestler

Tonya Harding today got a wacky offer. A Japanese wrestling club offered Tonya 2 million dollars ($2,000,000.00) to become a professional wrestler. When reporters ask her if she would take the offer she said she would think about it.

Upset Special Sunday**

On last Sunday, number 1 seed North Carolina was upset by Boston College

75-72 . Also a favorite, number 3 seed Kentucky was upset by Marquette. Over all this year was a year for upset's. Durring the regular season there were eight different teams to hold the number 1 seed. At the begining of the year North Carolina was the number 1 seed, and at the end of the season they ended up the number 1 seed. They were also a favorite to win the whole tournament. So all in all North Corollna went in a complete circle this year.

Final Four Teams Are All Set**

This year there is many surprises in the final four. Who would have thought teams such as Michigan, Purdue, Kentucky, Missouri and North Carolina would be out. Instead we get stuck with teams like Florida and Arizona. I wasn't that surprised about Duke and Arkansa, but it should be very interesting. I think it will be Duke and Arizona and Duke will win. What do you think.

News And Notes From The NHL

Bob Sweeney of the Buffalo Sabres will miss four to six weeks with a stretched ligaments in his right knee. The center is having a fine year and hope to see him on the ice soon.

Pittsburgh Penguins right wing Rick Tocchet received a back injection Monday. This injection is to help with treat an inflamed disk. Because of the back problems all season long, and has missed a total of 26 games because of the inflamed disk. He is now listed as day-to-day.

Good Things Don't Last

Well what ever I said must of worked, because the Hawks are on fire. They have won 8 of there last 11. And now they had a four game winning streak. Over all this makes there changes even better than a few weeks ago. To put the whole game in a nut shell the was good.

Players Scott Young and Mats Sundin both scored one goal along with a pile of assists as the so-so Nordiques battered the Hawks with a 5-1 victory.

Darryl Sutter had a feeling about the game. In which the Blackhawks would be tested. Guess what? THEY FAILED!!!! "I'm not surprised they came out fighting; they're a desperate team." Look who talking. Coach Sutter goes on by saying "It would have been surprising to me if they didn't come out hungry."

Well those are good words that I think the coach of the Nordiques would say. It does not matter that much on the winning streak but the number of games you need to get head in the standings. If you do that then you will be shure to be in the playoffs. With only a few more games left in the season the Hawks, I hope, will step it up a notch in order to have good chance to keep them sevles in the playoffs.

I just hope that Ed will be ready for the post season. Right now he is having one of his best seasons ever. But the thing to rember is that he is human. That may be hard to think, but it is true. That is why I was glad to see Jeff Hackett in goal on Monday. In that game he stopped 22 out of 27 shots. Given a little more time and he could be the next great Gardien de but (goalie).
